HOW TO AVOID

BOLSHEVISM

The world has had a great awakening within the last few years, has awakened to the fact that our whole system of legislation has been one-sided and unfair. It is no worse now than it has been for centuries, but for centuries a large proportion of the human race has suffered, and the law makers have failed to take advantage of the many opportunities of improving both the itself and their environment. The legislation has failed nearly altogether in controlling and improving the propagation of the race, and miserably failed in controlling the wealth of the world and seeing that every member of the race has a fair and equal chance of securing a legitimate share of that wealth. For years there have been rumblings of this awakening in the shape of labor disputes, strikes, and so on, but we have arrived at the time when the world wide awake, and looking round for the path that shall lead to a different state of affairs. Russia thinks she has recognized the right path, Bolshevism, and has stepped forward in that direction and many are following or preparing to follow, to what? I am sure, but it is a path that must be the wrong path, when to follow it means murder, rapine and destruction. In many of the old European countries, legislation that has brought about the necessary changes will be very hard to obtain, it will be hard enough to bring about in Canada, a country in its infancy. It will take men with courage and determination and with a single eye to the future welfare of this great and glorious country. The legislation that we bring about the improvement of the race itself and the conditions of living here have been recognized for years, and in many parts have been adopted by portions of the world. Let Canada lead by adopting more and more of better social laws and securing a happier and more contented people far removed from Bolshevism. As a nation are we strong and bold enough to carry out the necessary changes? Surely yes, for we are stronger, saner, or more intelligent people in the world today than Canadians.

VALLEY CENTRE.

On Thursday night we had a full of the beautiful "Just to remind us of the days that are gone."

We regret that our outburst of flu is in our midst again. Hope for a speedy recovery of the sick.

Mrs. William Reay, of Willowdale, was entertained by the evening recently by friends in the Valley.

Mrs. C. Reay, who has been called home owing to the death of her husband, returned home accompanied by little Miss Nellie Reay.

On Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. C. Clarke, also Master Austin, and the Misses Francis, Isabel and Ethel were welcome guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Good.

We noticed among the congregation Sunday morning at the service, a returned soldier, and one who has seen some hard fighting. Come again Charlie. Everybody made welcome.

Quite a few of our girls and boys who have been studying the required number of verses to obtain a diploma, are now ready to recite, and Mr. Alfred Reay, Superintendent, is prepared to hear part of them on Sunday evening at 6 p.m. "All honor to those who try."

BRIG-GEN. GRIESBACH PRESENTS ED WITH GOLD SWORD.

Edmonton, April 20.—Brig-Gen. Griesbach, C.B. Hon. C.M.G., was given a hearty welcome on his return to the city Saturday afternoon. The streets were lined with spectators. A great number of Canadian returned soldiers, and Gen. Griesbach was presented with a gold sword by Mayor Clarke on behalf of the civic corporation.

suitable to their training by the state, and if he or she refuse to work shall be prosecuted.

The question is, if legislation something after the lines of the above rough draft can be brought into effect without a revolution, why not?

There should be no great difficulty regarding the bringing in the legislation, or the improvement of the race. For the control of the wealth it will be a little more difficult, but by doing it gradually there should be little friction. The present day holders of wealth would enjoy it during their lifetime, but would not be allowed to bequeath more than $25,000 to any one heir or more than $100,000 to any number of heirs or institutions, the balance of their fortunes going to the government. For a number of years the government would have property would revert to the government which in turn would be expended in the interests of every citizen getting a fair chance to secure a comfortable living and raising a healthy progeny.

SOLDIERS COMPLAIN OF TREATMENT ON "SATURNIA"

ALBERTA VETERANS CHARGE COOKS AND STEWARDESSES FROM NORTHLAND WERE ON THIS VESSEL AND BLEED THEM UNMERCIFULLY.

The Calgary Herald, discussing this question on Saturday, April 12th, said: "The Northland cooks and stewards have been up to their eyes again, according to W. J. Dyson, the travelling representative of the Alberta Returned Soldier Commission. For some time now, indeed, since all the rumpus that was caused by the inquiry as to the treatment of returning soldiers on board the Northland, there have been but few complaints on the score of food or accommodation."

This, however, has not been the case with the men who crossed by the steamer Saturnia. As a matter of fact, most bitter protests have been lodged, and these are supported by the whole of the western men who reached Calgary Monday evening. It is stated that the cooks and the stewards of the Northland, who were cashiered after the inquiry, were signed on the Saturnia, and the steamer had hardly left Liverpool before they commenced to "draw the color" from the veterans.

THE OLD PROCEDURE.

The old, customary procedure was resorted to. The men were more than half clamored, so that the cooks and stewards might have the surplus food which was served up in pies and in other ways. A meal of chicken cost $1.20. Three apples were retailed at 25¢. Pies averaged 60¢ each. Even a "quarter" was charged for six ship biscuits.

SOLDIERS HELPLESS

It was a case of Hobson's choice with the soldiers. They were compelled to patronize the stewards, and much of the food that was served in the ordinary way was tainted and unfit for consumption. Eggs were absolutely "rotten," and the fish so bad that it almost made the soldiers vomit.

SANITARY CONDITIONS FRIGHTFUL

But this was not all. The sleeping accommodation was foul, and as many as ten men were placed in a compartment 9 ft. x 8 ft. There was no attempt at ventilation, and the temperature, taken in the presence of the ship's officers, stood at 95°.

The sanitary conditions almost beggared description. Two wash basins, one closet, and one bath had to serve for more than 90 men.

STATEMENTS VOUCHERED FOR.

All these statements have been vouched as being correct by Sergeant-Major McMillin, Sergeant-Major Ching, Sergeant-Major Jenkinson and Sergeant-Major Stone, all of Calgary, supported by a long list of 79 Alberta men, and 139 men whose homes are in British Columbia.

Mr. Dyson informed a representative of the Calgary Herald Tuesday morning that he was reporting the matter to Howard Sturtchey, the chief secretary of the Alberta Returned Soldier Commission, and the latter would, doubtless, communicate with the officials at Ottawa without delay.

The only redeeming feature of this party's trip was the accommodation and treatment on the C.P.R. train. This, it is stated, left nothing to be desired.

MILITARY STORES AT ARCHANGEL SEIZED

GERMAN THREATS INDUCE BOL-SHEVIKI TO REMOVE ALL WAR MATERIAL

Archangel, March 29.—When the Allied force first landed here in August, 1915, they found that most of the military stores which had been transported here for the use of the Russian imperial government had been removed in safety by the Bolsheviki. The Germans and the Bolsheviki knew of the Allied intention to land there to protect the stores and Count von Mirbach, the German ambassador at Moscow, told the Bolsheviki that the Germans would occupy Moscow and Petrograd if they did not get the stores away before the Allies landed.

The Bolsheviki hurried up thousands of Chinese coolies and had the great bulk of the war material at Sukona, 40 miles north of Volodga, and 300 miles down the Volodga-dachang railroad from the farthest point south the Allies have been able to reach. Last July, the correspondent saw acres of these supplies—shells, guns, motor trucks, airplanes, heaps of iron and steel—under wooden roofs, at Sukona.

It had been reported that the Germans supervised the work, but it has developed since that the Bolsheviki carried it out themselves. A young Bolsheviki, formerly a non-commissioned officer in the Russian ambulance service, was in direct charge of the work. He told the correspondent that with Chinese and soldier conscript laborers, the Bolsheviki removed all the stores they wanted in four months from Bakartas across the Divina from Archangel, and safely to Sukona. The work was completed by July 1, a month before the Allies set foot in Archangel.

The war material taken from Archangel by the Bolsheviki is believed to have aided them materially in the campaign against the Allies in this region.

A PRELIMINARY CANTER.

Mrs. Brown believed in treating her servant like a human being. So she always allowed her to have her young man in the kitchen in the evening.

But Mrs. Brown was also of a curious disposition and, knowing the girl was entertaining a new swain, she stole softly downstairs and listened at the kitchen door. She got no reward for her pains. All within was silence.

Next morning she said to her maid: "Mary, that young man of yours seems very quiet. I never hear any sound of talking while he is here." "Lor' bless you, mum," replied the girl with a blush and a giggle, "he's that shy he's done nothin' but eat up to the present!"

WHISKERS REAPPEARING. Along these side products of the war may assume.

London Chronicle: A noticeable feature in masculine appearance is the increasing fashion of whiskers. At present they are only small affairs of the Albert variety, made popular by the Prince Consort. The whisker is no longer than two fingers' breadth but there is no telling what dimensions these side products of the war may assume.

It is an army fashion, just as boards were an aftergrowth of the Crimea. The present whisker originated among officers whose right arm, stiff or impaired through wounds, cannot be raised easily to the level of the ear, and so prevents a clean shave to the top of the cheek.

THE NEWS' WEEKLY SERMON

By Rev. Gordon Matthews.

"The first day of the week cometh Mary-Magdalene early when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeing the stone taken away.... They have taken away the Lord, and we know not where they have laid Him." St. John XX, 1 and 2.

In these words the story of the first Easter morn is opened up to the world. The message of Easter begins with the story of the Empty Tomb.

Filled with sorrow at the death of their master, the faithful women, in accordance with Eastern custom, have come on the first day of the week, the third day after His burial, to bring spices to anoint the body of the Lord. So early in the morning is it that it is yet hardly light, although the Eastern sun is beginning to appear on the horizon, preparatory to sending forth its rays of light which were to go out to make bright the day when the Lord burst the bonds of the tomb, and came forth the conqueror of death and sin. It was with no feelings of joy that Mary, in the dim light of early dawn, walked to the tomb of the Lord. Dark without as yet, it was also dark within. She is even announced to the world, in no mood of exalted expectancy, but in deepest grief. She is pondering a new trouble that has come into her mind since she has left her home. It is this, "Who shall roll us away the stone?" She has come to embalm, but she cannot enter the tomb. As she passes from beneath the trees she sees with wondering relief and to her surprise that the stone is rolled away and the keepers fled. But this difficulty is removed only to reveal to her that which casts her into the lowest depths of despair and disappointment. The body of Jesus is not there—the grave is empty. Then suddenly the worst turns to the best. She hears a voice, she is conscious that someone is present. The white-robed figure of the heavenly messenger turns her mourning into joy. "Fear not," he says, "I know ye seek Jesus who was crucified; He is not here, but is risen; come and see the place where the Lord lay." HE IS RISEN! What a transformation to them. They are no doubt reminded of the Psalmist's words: "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning." Mary and the other women hurry away to bring the good news to the other disciples. Fast and far the news travelled, and soon the mourning followers of the Lord were revived with the good tidings that—"The Lord is risen indeed." The glorious fact of a conqueror more mighty than death was that morning proclaimed to the world. It was not accomplished by any great herald, there was no noise or tumult; the Resurrection was not heralded by any trumpet, it was the birth of the Lord, with songs of the hosts of heaven; but it was accomplished in silence. This, the greatest transaction in history, the mightiest conquest the world has ever known, was achieved in the dead of night while the world slept. The Resurrection overcame the world's mightiest foe, broke the bonds of death and came forth from the tomb a living man. "Jesus being raised from the dead, dieth no more, death hath no more dominion over Him, for death is swallowed up in victory."

What is the significance of this great fact? It means that the whole church joins today in songs of praise and alleluias in celebrating this great event? Why is it that as we stand today beside the empty tomb it awakens in us the deep emotions of joy and praise?

It is because the Atonement is completed. It means that God the Father has accepted Christ's work as a satisfaction for the sins of the whole world. It means that the problem of a future life has been solved and a veritable hereafter revealed and opened up to man.

The gospel which finds its highest note in the Easter story, is not a gospel of a dead Saviour, but of a living, reigning, life-giving one who lives for evermore. Since Christ rose, the power of the grave is broken—it is no longer a dark prison-house, but the gate of life. Now we die to live again.

But the Resurrection not only assures us of the future life, it is not only a pledge of life beyond the grave, not only does it give to man that message of immortality, but there is spiritual life in the risen Christ. By the power of His resurrection, men may rise from the death of sin into the life of righteousness. There are many in the world who are dead to every noble aim in life, buried in the world's follies and sins. So they will remain until they permit the life-giving one, the Victor and vanquisher of sin, to take all their burdens of sin and roll it back into the empty tomb.

The personal joys which must have come to those who had been in immediate contact with Christ when He rose from the tomb, and beyond these there lay the great treasure of spiritual truth which is shared by them, by us and by all the world.

Whatever may have happened at the tomb of Christ, one thing is certain, from this grave has sprung the indestructible faith in the overthrow of death and in an eternal life. Easter brings us the assurance that the life of Christ, and all other lives lived in God are not crushed, that He who was dead is alive, and alive for evermore, and holds the keys of death and eternity.

Then again the empty grave is a place of hope. How often our hopes here are blighted, our expectations dashed down, and the resurrection of Jesus Christ proclaims the reviving of lost hopes. The brightest hopes were shattered when Jesus died, but when He arose they all revived. There is a hope, not a joy, that has gone down here in the night of disappointment, but will rise in a fairer world when the sun will never set. Every loving heart, every hope the despairing soul and every joy unobtainable to the mourner. All that on earth we may have loved and lost will be given back in heaven. That is the message of Easter, that is the blessing which is brought to us today when we sing the praises of Him who died, but who no longer lies within the grave, for He is not there, but is risen.

Easter tells us that this life of ours is crowned with an unending dignity. It is no longer an uncertain existence of a moment, but it is the real life springing up into eternity.

It is no longer the flickering existence of a perishable body, it is the eternal growth of an immortal soul. To fight with beasts at Ephesus, as did St. Paul, on behalf of that soul's life is no mere chivalrous folly. There is but one conclusion and that of invincible courage, to be drawn from the Easter story, for it brings to us the message of victory, and that as He is risen, so we may rise. "And if ye then," says the Apostle in our Epistle for today, "if ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth at the right hand of God."

"They have taken away the Lord, and we know not where they have laid Him." Such was the saying of Mary, but her heaviness was soon to be turned into joy, for the empty tomb meant that the Lord had risen. The great companion is not dead, but liveth. "I am with you through all the days." Is that fellowship of Christ's continual presence, those first disciples went forth conquerors to conquer the world within and without, not suddenly transformed to the Divine image, but loyally yielding their will to the spirit within, and growing from grace to grace in the power and presence of the Living God, gaining victory after victory, echoing the thought, "Oh death, where is thy sting, oh grave, where is thy victory?" Answering in faith and hope, "Thanks be to God, who giveth us the victory, through our Lord Jesus Christ."

For all that breathe beneath the heaven's high cope, Joy with grief mixes, with despondence hope. Hope conquers cowardice; joy conquers grief; Or at least, faith unbefl. Though dead, not dead; not gone, though fled; Not lost, though vanished. In the Great Gospel and true Creed, Christ is yet risen; yes, is risen indeed.

Some time since an Ohio man decided to invite a business acquaintance to dinner, and in consulting his wife about it gave her some of the prospective guest's private history. From the moment the guest took his place at the table on the appointed evening the eyes of little Johnny never left him.

"Mr. Jones," finally remarked the youngster, "won't you please drink your coffee? I am awfully anxious to see you." "Why, yes," good-naturedly smiled the guest, "if you wish me to. Why are you so anxious to see me drink it?" "Because," answered Johnny, to the great embarrassment of his parents, "papa says you drink like a fish."

Help the Y.M.C.A. Finish its Work For Soldiers

Help the "Y" Construct the Manhood that will Re-construct Canada

ALL the world now knows that the Red Triangle of the Y.M.C.A. was the "Sign of Friendship" to thousands of your brothers, sons, nephews, cousins and neighbours' boys in the last four and half years. Wherever the Canadian Soldiers went, the "Good old 'Y'" went too. And now it is coming back home with them!

For the support which has made possible the war work of the Y.M.C.A. we thank you. Your money has been well expended. We have rendered full account.

We ask now your continued sympathy and support for Red Triangle Service for our Soldiers during demobilization, and for Y.M.C.A. work for Canada generally during the Reconstruction period. The Annual Red Triangle campaign will be held throughout Canada May 5th to 9th, 1919. The objective is $1,100,000.

For Our Men Returning

For the soldiers and their dependents, returning from Overseas, we have provided as follows:—

1. A Red Triangle man on board every ship when it leaves Great Britain, with a full equipment of games, gramophones and records, magic lantern, literature and writing materials. Where possible, also a piano or an organ. Lectures, concerts, singing schools, instruction in Government repatriation plans, and Sunday Services.
2. Red Triangle comforts and facilities for the men on arrival at Halifax, St. John, Quebec and Montreal, including coffee stalls, with free drinks, free canteens, cigarettes, candies, etc.
3. Red Triangle men on every troop train to provide regular free drinks, canteens and cigarettes, organize games and sing songs, and furnish information.
4. Red Triangle free canteen service, information bureau, etc., at each of the 22 Dispersal centres in Canada.
5. Red Triangle Clubs in the principal cities of Canada in the shape of large Y.M.C.A. hotels to furnish bed and board at low rates and to be a rendezvous for soldiers.
6. Seventy-five Secretaries to superintend Red Triangle service in Military Hospitals, Camps and Barracks throughout Canada.
7. Tickets entitling soldiers to full Y.M.C.A. privileges for six months at any local Y.M.C.A. furnished.

In addition to our work for the returning soldiers, we have to maintain the Red Triangle service to the full for the soldiers in Siberia, as well as the work of special secretaries in Northern Russia, Palestine and Poland.

Y.W.C.A.

For the wives and children Overseas, dependent upon Canadian soldiers, and for Y.W.C.A. work in Canada generally, a sum of $175,000 from the Red Triangle Fund will be set aside for the Dominion Council of the Y.W.C.A., which is caring for the soldiers' women folk, and their little ones on the long journey from Liverpool to Canada, and is also extending its work for Canadian girls.

For their sake also be generous when you make your contribution.

FOR the sake of our victorious soldiers and their dependents, and the happiness of their home-coming; for the sake of our future citizens, our teen-age boys; for the sake of rural life in Canada; for the sake of the social betterment of the toilers in factory and workshop; for the sake of lonely men and boys in our mines and forests; for the sake of Christian Society and Canadian manhood—we appeal to you. Give us your contribution, little or big. Be as generous as you can.

Hand your contribution to the canvasser when he calls, or if you live where it is difficult for him to call, send it by check, money order or registered letter to the National Treasurer, Red Triangle Campaign, 120 Bay Street, Toronto.

For Canada's Manhood

The Reconstruction program of the Y.M.C.A. includes the following vitally important developments:—

1. An increased service to 300,000 teen-age boys in the Dominion—the development of Canadian Standard Efficiency training; Bible Study groups; courses in civics, service for High School boys, for working boys, in the towns and cities; for boys on the farm and for boys everywhere, who have lacked opportunity for mental, moral, physical or social development.
2. Inauguration of Y.M.C.A. work in the country, and the smaller towns and villages lacking Association buildings and equipment, on a plan of county organization. This will include the establishment of Red Triangle centres for social, recreational and educational work among boys and men, in co-operation with the churches.
3. The promotion of Y.M.C.A. work among Canada's army of workers in industrial plants, both in Y.M.C.A. buildings and in the factory buildings, organizing the social spirit among the industrial workers of our cities by meetings, entertainments, games and sports.
4. The establishment of the Red Triangle in isolated districts where lumbermen, miners and other workers hold the front trenches of industry.
5. Besides these main fields of increased activity for 1919, we have to provide for enlarged work among returning men, college students and for our campaign to encourage physical and sex education. Under all our work we place the fundamental foundation of manly Christianity.

social spirit among the industrial workers of our cities by meetings, entertainments, games and sports.

Please Note:

We are not asking for money to carry on our work Overseas, with the Army in Great Britain, France or Belgium. That work will continue at its maximum for some months, financially provided for by the liquidation of our assets Overseas, and will not terminate till the last man has sailed for home.

UNIVERSITY NOTES

The short courses in Retail Merchandising to be given by the University of Alberta, at the request of the Retail Merchants' Association, will be held in Edmonton during the week ending May 31, and in Medicine Hat at the Annual Provincial Convention of the Association on June 2, 4.

Preliminary work with a view to the erection of a new building at the north-west corner of the Arts Building is already under way, and every effort will be made to expedite its construction. Part of this building will be occupied by the Department of Mining Engineering and part by the Faculty of Agriculture.

Easter holidays at the University of Alberta will be shorter than usual this year, consisting only of Good Friday and Saturday. The Baccalaureate will continue as usual on Monday morning. This curtailment has been necessary because of the time lost during the epidemic of influenza.

Letters are being received at the University of Alberta from students overseas, telling of plans for the summer and autumn. Many of these are coming back to take up their studies at the university in October.

Nominations are now being received for representatives from convocation to the Senate of the University of Alberta. The period for receipt of such nominations closes on April 19. The eighth annual convocation of the University of Alberta will be held on Thursday, May 15th. The Convocation address will be delivered by Rev. J. McCartney Wilson, of Knox Presbyterian Church, Calgary, who recently delivered an Edmonton address with an illustrated lecture on "William Blake." On the preceding Sunday, May 12th, the Baccalaureate Sermon will be preached in Convocation Hall, by Captain the Rev. L. H. Lang, Church of England Chaplain to Returned Soldiers in Edmonton.

A short course in Public Health Nursing, open to registered nurses, is now being held in the Provincial Laboratories at the University of Alberta. To date, seven nurses have registered for the course, which will be of two months' duration, and will include lectures on School Inspection, Sanitation, Pre-Natal Care, Rural and City Hygiene, etc. The opening lectures are being given by Dr. H. C. Jamieson, Acting Provincial Bacteriologist.

Other lectures in the course will be delivered by experts from different centres.

Among the new books recently added to the Open Shelf Library of the Department of Extension, University of Alberta, the following are of special interest at this time:

"The Education of the New Canadian: A treatise on Canada's greatest educational problem," by J. T. M. Anderson, Inspector of Schools, Yorkton, Saskatchewan.

"The Clash: A study in Nationalities by William Henry Moore.

"The Bulwarks of Peace, by Heber L. Hart.

The Meaning of Industrial Freedom, by G. D. H. Cole, and W. Mellor. These books may be borrowed by any individual in the province. The only charge for the use of them is the payment of postage both ways.

a Terrible Penalty
frequently follows the neglect of an injury. Germs and dust get into the wound, it begins to fester, blood-poisoning sets in, and sometimes the loss of a limb is the result. Safeguard yourself against such a possibility by applying Zamb-Buk at once. This antiseptic balm destroys all germs and prevents festering and blood-poisoning. Then the healing essences promote the growth of new tissue and it is not long before the wound is completely healed.

Zamb-Buk should be kept handy in every home, office, store and factory for cuts, scratches, burns, scalds and bruises. It is equally good for frost-burns, rashes, boils and ulcers. All dealers, 50c. box.

ST. JOHN AMBULANCE BRIGADE OVERSEAS V.A.D.

An urgent call has come from the military authorities for V.A.D. Nursing Members.

Applicants must have the First Aid and Home Nursing Certificate of the St. John Ambulance Association, or be prepared to take them, and become members of the St. John Ambulance Brigade.

All candidates will be required to sign up for a period of six months, which will be counted as Military Home Service.

The technical relationship between these women and the Department of Militia and Defence will mean that they become a part of the Canadian Army Medical Services, and will receive their uniform and subsistence allowances from the government of the country, and a small monthly gratuity from the headquarters of the St. John Ambulance Brigade.

Apply in first instance to Mrs. C. A. Lucas, O.C. for the St. John Ambulance Brigade, V.A.D., Alberta District Office, 602, City Hall, Edmonton.

THE HARBOUR OF LIFE.
Some dream of a life that is fairer than this, And picture a realm in the sky. But the beauty surrounding them down here they miss As they search for the splendours on high.

Leave death for the dead. There are songs to be sung. There are joys to be born out of strife;

The world is the place where all hearts should be young. The earth is the harbor of life.

There are goals to be reached, there are deeds to be done. There are joys for our children to know;

There are battles with evil and hate to be won. That the world with contentment may glow.

And the mission of man from the time of his birth To the day that his spirit shall soar.

Is to make for the living a happier earth Than ever it has been before.

We can change not the realm that is promised for all, Nor comfort the souls of the dead. But here we can lighten the burden that falls

And level the pathways we tread. We can make of this earth a more beautiful place. To life many charms we can give; We can fill it with laughter and music and grace;

We can make it a pleasure to live. Let us toil while we may for the splendour of earth.

Let us brighten the days with our song, Let us fill the dark corners with sunshine and mirth.

And banish oppression and wrong. Let us dream not so much of the Heaven afar

That the beauty about us we miss; Our duty lies here, where at present we are,

Let us make a good world out of this.

PEACE BY MAY DAY IS PROMISED

AGREEMENT REACHED ON BIG QUESTION.

Paris, April 12.—Talk of an "Easter peace" has given way to a promise of a "May Day peace."

While the most chronic optimists admitted the last hope of peace by April 20th apparently had vanished, there was a general feeling that the treaty would be ready for presentation to the Germans by May 1, at least.

Persons close to the "Big Four" intimated that an agreement has virtually been reached now on all important questions—reparations, responsibility for the war, the Saar Valley, disposition of Poles and Danzig and German boundaries.

The military, naval and aerial terms of the treaty have been completed for weeks. The revised league of nations covenant is ready for submission to a plenary session.

An instance of how the covenant is interwoven with the treaty is provided in the settlement of the Saar problem. The "big four" agreed that region would be under political supervision of the league for a period of years, while France controls the important coal mines there, final ownership of which will be determined by a plebiscite directed by the league.

TYPHUS FEVER RAGES IN EASTERN EUROPE.

Cannes, France, April 11.—Grave reports relative to the progress of typhus fever in eastern Poland, Russia, Serbia and Macedonia were received at the Red Cross conference here today from Red Cross agents in those countries. During the session reports on typhus who were present formed a committee to advise the organization as to means for combating the disease, forecasting a new organization within the Red Cross.

Reports from the various agents gave experts the impression that the situation was even more serious than was stated in messages received, but that proper measures would probably prevent the disease from spreading to Italy, France, England and America.

ROSS STREET

SYLVAN LAKE TO THE FRONT
ONCE MORE.

Crowded out last week. Again the citizens of Sylvan Lake and vicinity have been treated to one of those grand eloquent occasions so seldom made use of here, when a few of the ladies of the village got their heads together and thought it would be quite nice to have a little social party to be held as a reception to our friends Mr. and Mrs. Rolston and Mr. Knecht and son, who were leaving the place, consequently the banker, the baker, and the candle stick maker, the lumber merchant, doctor, and agents, and all the rest of the strangers, with their wives and families, besides the many residents of the village, were invited to meet on the 8th inst. in the spacious parlors of the Lake View Hotel, so generously donated by Mr. and Mrs. Dingwall, the proprietors. Well, the house began to be filled, until Mrs. Dingwall began to think of shooting some of them upstairs, but when they finally got the small tables scattered around and the players, accordingly, and cards and checkers produced, the fun began, and I guess would have been kept up until this time if the ladies hadn't come to the conclusion that it was time to change the program, and gone to bring in the goodies and the good tea and coffee. Yum, yum. Cards and checkers lost all their sweetness at once and not one of those who had been playing had to be coaxed at all to change the play. Well, supper being over at last, Mr. Jamieson, sr., the chairman announced the occasion of the gathering, and made a little presentation speech and presented Mr. Knecht, sr., with a very nice pipe, and Victor, the son, with a choice pocket knife. After which, appropriate remarks were made by the different ones showing their regrets for losing a portion of our citizens and giving glad and welcome hand to the stranger friends who were just coming into our midst. The balance of the time was well spent in songs, recitations and instrumental music until the wee sma' 'oors, when they all began to disperse for their different little nests, thanking Mr. and Mrs. Dingwall for all their kindness, and hoping for a repetition of the same in the near future, they bade them good-night.

A NOTED WOMAN WORKER.

Hanna, then food controller, to direct the domestic economics branch of the Canada food board, she was assistant superintendent and librarian of Women's Institutes for the Alberta government.

Mrs. Muldrew is an accomplished public speaker, and is known from Halifax to Vancouver through her successful efforts to co-ordinate women's activities on behalf of national war work.

Did you ever stand in the golden sunlight of a warm day when your eyes turned up at a sheet of fly paper? If so, you will have noticed how when one fly adheres to the sticky surface its companions, instead of profiting by the horrible warning, immediately buzz down and go to destruction in the same manner, and in a little time there are hundreds in the throes of death. They are fools, to be sure, and so are men. Men see their associates caught in the nets of vice. There are examples and warnings all about human beings, but they treat them as lightly as do flies and step down to death just as insensibly.
